

Japan OLED Forum Outstanding Achievement Award guidelines

1. Aim of the award

The aim of this award is to recognize and honor a member who has accomplished remarkable achievement in OLED-related science and technology.

2. Award specifics: ① Achievement ② Eligibility ③ Period ④ Number of awards ⑤ Award ceremony

① The award is presented for remarkable achievement in OLED-related science and technology.

② Japan OLED Forum membership or qualification for membership is required. Both individuals and groups are eligible.

③ Selection is based on the academic papers and technical presentations produced in the 2-year period ending on December 31 of the previous year. Achievements presented at the Japan OLED Forum are preferred.

④ In principle, two awards are presented each year.

⑤ At the spring Meeting, the award and a commemorative gift are presented to the winner(s). Each winner is requested to give a commemorative presentation.

3. Selection process: ① Nomination process ② Deliberation, recommendation, approval, and decision process

① Candidates can be either self-nominated or nominated by other members.

② Deliberations are held by the Japan OLED Forum Outstanding Achievement Award Selection Committee. Recommendations are made by the Selection Committee and approved by the Steering Committee to decide the recipient(s).

4. Timing of award

The award is presented at a ceremony held during the spring Meeting.
